Suggestion Summary

The student feedback primarily emphasizes a desire for more practical and interactive learning experiences. This includes a strong call for increased in-person instruction, especially for labs and seminars, alongside more opportunities for student discussion and group work. Another significant theme is the need for improved clarity and timeliness in communication, specifically relating to clearer assignment expectations and quicker, more comprehensive feedback. Furthermore, students suggested better integration of technology in lectures and the provision of more resources for struggling students, highlighting a broader request for enhanced instructional methods and academic support.
